Project 2

Creation of a European website/data base/Forum for young people

The idea is the give to European young people the opportunity to meet other young people from another country, to learn a new language and to debate about youth and European issues/

How it's works

1. you enter your data:
2. you specify your request and area of interest for instance :” I am French and a look for Spanish young people interested in ...”
3. communication via skype or forum
